ASCHA Convention—April 25-27, Red Deer

The annual ASCHA (Alberta Seniors Communities & Housing Association) Convention and Tradeshow is fast approaching—April 25 - 27, 2016. It will be held in Red Deer this year, which is very convenient for us! The theme this year centers around the “Superheroes” model with the motto, “Power to the Residents.” The superheroes/comic book theme should make for a really fun convention and tradeshow. We are excited about customizing our booth for the new theme and unveiling our new games and prizes. We are looking forward to reconnecting with many ASCHA members and clients and making new connections as well. Hope to see you at the tradeshow!

Wellness Ride, August 6, 2016—Save-the-Date

Wellness Ride 2015 Poster

The date has been set for the 2016 Berry Architecture/Red Deer PCN Wellness Ride, so please mark your calendars for August 6. This is a week earlier than the usual date, so we wanted to give our riders and sponsors a heads up to be aware of the change. We have some exciting new features this year—there will be a 10km “family ride” for families with younger children which will take place at the beginning of the ride, and we are also encouraging groups to form teams so that they can challenge other teams to compete for most fundraising, most 100km finishers, etc. As always, all funds are in support of Canadian Mental Health Association (Red Deer Branch) and Central Alberta Brain Injury Society and all funds remain in Central Alberta.

We are very excited to have professional cyclist, Tom Danielson, formerly of Team Cannondale/Garmin, as our celebrity guest rider this year! Tom has had a long and very successful career as a professional cyclist and has ridden for a number of high profile teams, including many Tour de France appearances. Alberta cycling fans may remember his appearance in the Tour of Alberta two years ago. Tom also runs a training and cycling tour business (Cinch Cycling) from his home base in Tucson, Arizona. Welcome, Tom. Thanks so much for your support!
